

MISSOURI S&T EARLY CAREER FACULTY FORUMS

Month	Thread #1: Successful Faculty Practices First Wednesdays 12:00	Thread #2: Best Practices: Teaching Second Wednesdays 12:00	Thread #3: Research/Scholarship Third Tuesdays 11:00	Thread #4: Supporting Teaching Faculty Fourth Tuesdays 11:00
Fall 2024
SEPT	SEPTEMBER 4 Making the most of your first year at S&T	SEPTEMBER 11 Implementing active learning strategies in the classroom	SEPTEMBER 17 Introduction to the Office of Sponsored Programs, including pre/post-award, budgeting, and where to find support	SEPTEMBER 24 Education-focused grants/resources available for teaching faculty
OCT	OCTOBER 2 Setting priorities, time management, selecting service commitments	OCTOBER 9 Reaching all your students: universal design, inclusivity, and disability support services	OCTOBER 15 Identifying opportunities for supporting research and creative activities across all disciplines	OCTOBER 22 Making an impact beyond your classroom
NOV	NOVEMBER 6 Using myVita to document faculty accomplishments	NOVEMBER 13 Providing useful and timely feedback to students	NOVEMBER 19 Recruiting, managing, and mentoring research teams	Thanksgiving Break
Spring 2025
FEB	FEBRUARY 5 Developing a robust and effective mentoring network	FEBRUARY 12 Building evidence of effective teaching for promotion dossiers; receiving/using feedback	FEBRUARY 18 Importance of diverse research teams; navigating Broader Impacts in proposal writing	FEBRUARY 25 Panel discussion on NTT promotion process
MAR	MARCH 5 Understanding S&T students and S&T campus culture	MARCH 12 Managing classroom dynamics/in-class discussions; setting expectations for students and GTAs	MARCH 18 Successfully mentoring undergraduate researchers; support for undergraduate research	Spring Break
APRIL	APRIL 2 Engaging with AI as a teacher and researcher	APRIL 9 Teaching effectively using KEEN resources	APRIL 15 Research ethics; IRB; compliance issues; intellectual property	APRIL 22 Scholarship of Teaching and Learning: keeping up with pedagogy, publishing in SoTL
MAY	MAY 7 Planning for a productive summer

Early Career Faculty Forums are designed for faculty in their first three years at S&T, but all faculty are welcome to attend. All forums will take place in CAFE's Faculty Innovation Studio, G-11 Wilson Library, and will include lunch and time for networking.

Seating is limited, so please register using this link or the registration button on the website. Spring semester registration will be available in January 2025.