

MISSOURI S&T EARLY CAREER FACULTY FORUMS SPRING 2025

Month	Thread #1: Successful Faculty Practices First Wednesdays 12:00	Thread #2: Best Practices: Teaching Second Wednesdays 12:00	Thread #3: Research/Scholarship Third Tuesdays 11:00	Thread #4: Supporting Teaching Faculty Fourth Tuesdays 11:00
Feb	FEBRUARY 5 Developing a robust mentoring network; benefits of universal design.	FEBRUARY 12 Building evidence of effective teaching for promotion dossiers; receiving/using feedback	FEBRUARY 18 Importance of diverse research teams; navigating Broader Impacts in proposal writing	FEBRUARY 25 Panel discussion on NTT promotion process
Mar	MARCH 5 Understanding S&T students and S&T campus culture	MARCH 12 Managing classroom dynamics/in-class discussions; setting expectations for students and GTAs	MARCH 18 Successfully mentoring undergraduate researchers; support for undergraduate research	Spring Break
April	APRIL 2 Engaging with AI as a teacher and researcher	APRIL 9 (2pm) Teaching effectively using KEEN resources	APRIL 15 Research ethics; IRB; compliance issues; intellectual property	APRIL 22 Scholarship of Teaching and Learning: keeping up with pedagogy, publishing in SoTL
May	MAY 7 Planning for a productive summer

Early Career Faculty Forums are designed for faculty in their first three years at S&T, but all faculty are welcome to attend.

All forums will take place in CAFE's Faculty Innovation Studio, G-11 Wilson Library, and will include lunch and time for networking.

Seating is limited, so please register.